

Santa Rosa County is accepting applications to serve on the Navarre Area Architectural Review Board. The deadline for submittal is Monday, August 15th.
(We recently learned that the previously advertised deadline was not clearly communicated.)

This board will have the responsibility to review all new development or redevelopment requiring site plan or plat approval within the Heart of Navarre Overlay District, including the Navarre Town Center Zoning Districts.

The criteria for membership has yet to be adopted; however, the draft language reads as follows:

"A. Membership: The Architectural Review Board shall be composed of the following members:

1. Five voting members appointed by the Board of County Commissioners,
 - (a) one of which owns property in the Town Center District,
 - (b) one of which owns property in the Heart of Navarre District,
 - (c) one of which resides in the Navarre Area as defined in the Navarre Town Center Plan (October 2004),
 - (d) two of which have architectural design or construction experience, and
 - (e) one of the members above shall be an architect."

If you are interested in serving on this board, please complete the attached application and forward it to the Planning and Zoning Department by mail or fax or e-mail attachment
